Bichon Bits & Bytes

October 2015 Bichon FurKids Rescue

Trick or... Calendar!

The 2016 Bichon FurKids calendar is ready to order for your holiday gift-giving fun! This little work of art (if we do say so ourselves) showcases the adorable and, in some cases, downright silly bichons who participated in our recent calendar contest. The calendar is available now to order from our website at http://www.bichonfurkids.org.

Please think of the people you love who also love bichons — and buy a calendar for them. They not only make great holiday gifts, but are also the perfect birthday or anniversary gift for any dog lover! And remember, the proceeds from each calendar go towards the needs of incoming FurKids.

CITY OF IRVINE
ANIMAL CARE CENTER

Please join us for the ninth annual Home for the Holidays Adoption event at the Animal Care Center. Many of our adoptable FurKids will be there. Bring your family and friends for some fun and lots of smiles!

More than 50 pet rescue groups and animal shelters will bring more than 500 homeless dogs, cats, rabbits and small animals for adoption. The event will also feature vendors, refreshments, free veterinarian and trainer advice, low-cost microchips and a silent auction of more than 40 items.

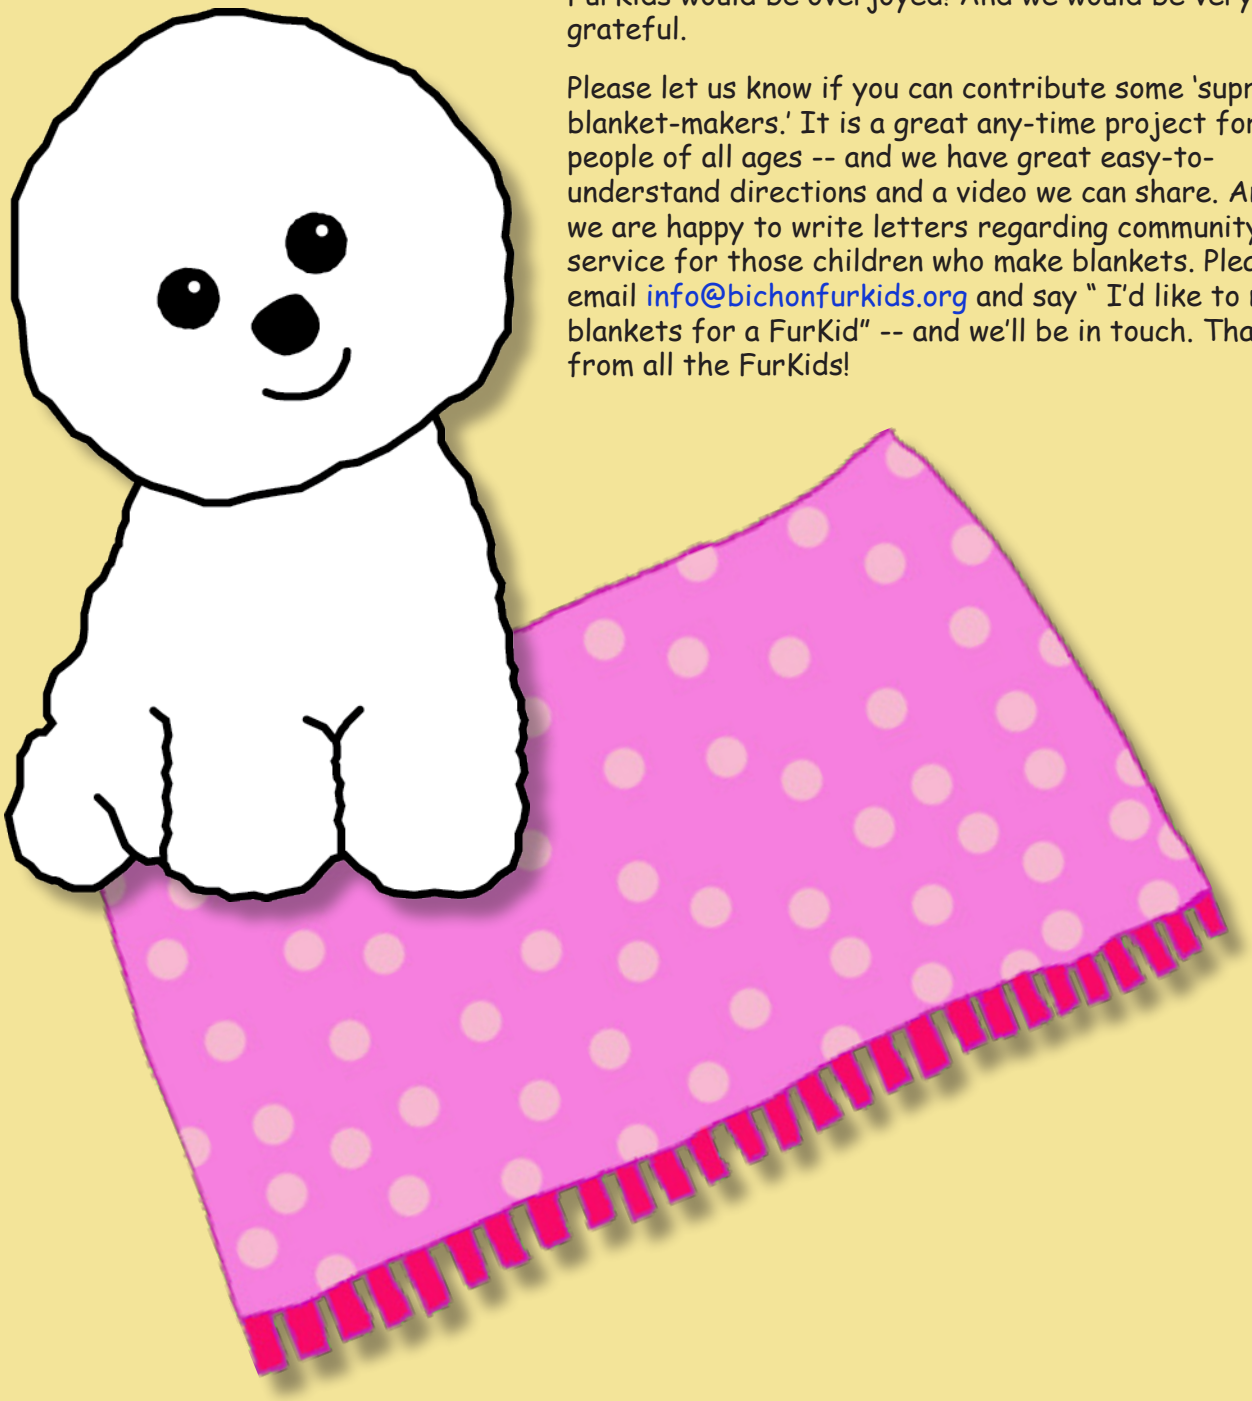
Suggested donation is $2 and parking is free. Leashed and vaccinated dogs are welcome. Call 949-724-7740 or email info@irvineshelter.org for more information.

Blankets for FurKids

It's a fact that our FurKids love the blankets made by our Junior (and Senior) Volunteers.

We have had a lot of adoptions this year (that's the good news) however our supply of blankets is almost gone (that's the bad news.) If you, or someone you know, would like to make the no-sew blankets, our FurKids would be overjoyed! And we would be very grateful.

Please let us know if you can contribute some 'supreme blanket-makers.' It is a great any-time project for people of all ages -- and we have great easy-to-understand directions and a video we can share. And we are happy to write letters regarding community service for those children who make blankets. Please email info@bichonfurkids.org and say " I'd like to make blankets for a FurKid" -- and we'll be in touch. Thanks from all the FurKids!



How will your FurKid be dressed for Halloweeen?

Eli

Check out little Eli, our little distemper puppy survivor, who is ready to go trick or treating... and as cute as a bug in a rug... or is that on a rug?

Captain Sawyer

Four months ago this little guy was abandoned, left to fend for himself in the hot desert. This Halloween Captain Sawyer celebrates being in his forever home, loved, adored and pampered which is what it's all about. We are so happy for him and his family!

Here are some more clever FurKids and their adorable costumes...

And finally...meet Cali!

Cali, one of our newest FurKids, spent more than two months at a local shelter and rapidly became a staff favorite. Now he's in foster care and basking in the love and comfort of being in a home again. Here he is in his "costume" -- impersonating a doughnut hole.
